Lockdale Coins & Collectables Auction #126: 11th & 12th July 2015

Lockdales, 52 Barrack Square, Martlesham Heath, Ipswich, Suffolk, IP5 3RF

From the West: Take the A14 round the outside of Ipswich, go over the Orwell Bridge.

Continue on the A14 and take the turnoff onto the A12 towards Woodbridge.

Barrack Square is opposite the BT Adastral Park Tower (a square-topped tower you will see from miles away)

You will drive past the BT tower on your right. Double-back round the roundabout as per illustration. Now the tower will be on your left.

52 Barrack Square is past the 3 war memorials. See back cover for a photo of our premises. Free parking in the area.

COMPLIMENTARY TEAS & COFFEES AVAILABLE.

VIEWING ON THE AUCTION DAYS FROM 8.00am.

When viewing on the auction days you will need to fill in a viewing list with your name and address once you have registered with Carly. Staff will then provide items for you to see.

We strongly recommend that those wishing to view many items attend viewing prior to the auction days, available from Monday 29th June.

We ask that customers wait until after 3pm Monday 13th July before making post-sale enquiries. Information will be unavailable before that time. Invoices will be sent out in due course.

We do not open on bank holidays.

The Buyers Premium is 17.25%

For our Bidders Terms see end of catalogue.

Valuation Days

We conduct special valuation days at venues all around the UK. No appointment is necessary at such events, and valuations are provided free of charge. We look forward to meeting all our customers in person, and hope to see you soon. We are always keen to consign goods to auction, or to make cash purchases.

Many events will be scheduled throughout the year. Up-to-date details of events are on our website www.lockdales.com

Valuations are available at our Martlesham premises, please call first to make an appointment. In the case of high value collections we are happy to send one of our representatives to visit you. We will travel overseas to collect your goods if you have guaranteed that you will consign to our auction, or will accept a purchase offer agreed prior to travel.

Returns Policy

Please inspect thoroughly all lots purchased upon collection or postal receipt. Returns can only be made within 7 days of receipt, with written explanation of the reasons why. Items can only be returned if significantly mis-described, or if proven to be inauthentic when sold as genuine. Bulk lots cannot be returned and thus we strongly advise viewing such lots in person. The nature of what constitutes a bulk lot is determined at Lockdales' discretion. Returned lots will only be accepted if returned in the same condition they were received in. We seek to stress by these terms: that the practices and etiquette of sale by auction are different from those relevant to sale by private treaty. Items in our auction are not sold "on approval". Bidders should be certain of the nature of each lot before bidding. We do not refund postal charges. We do not accept any returns on specifically German medals & militaria. These items are considered sold 'as seen' and should only be bought in full knowledge and acceptance of these terms.

In April 1937 he joined the RAFVR at Brighton and carried out his flying training at Shoreham Airport, in Tiger Moths, Audaxes and Battles. Penfold was awarded his wings in 1938 and when he was called up on 1st September 1939 he had 250 flying hours in his logbook, a large number for a VR pilot. In the latter part of the year Penfold was posted to 3 FTS, South Cerney for a twin-engine conversion course and on 1 February 1940 he was commissioned, arrived at 12 Group Pool in March, converted to Blenheims and was then posted to 29 Squadron at Debden on April 6. Penfold served with the squadron during the Battle of Britain, on night fighting duties at various fighter stations. On 3 September 1940 he was posted to 6 OTU, Sutton Bridge, as an instructor, converting Polish Pilots to Hurricanes. Penfold was later posted to 73 OTU, Aden, to instruct. Its aircraft having been found to be unsuitable for the area, the unit was moved to Egypt in early 1942. Soon after arriving, Penfold joined 216 Squadron at El Khanka, fifteen miles south of Heliopolis. The squadron had Bombays and carried out many tasks, including supplying troops, dropping paratroopers and transporting the severely wounded back to Heliopolis. Shortly after joining 216, Penfold's Bombay was attacked and set alight by a BF 109 near Burg-El-Arab and he managed to make a forced landing before the fire became too serious. German fighters strafed the burning aircraft for ten minutes, luckily without casualties. In thirty minutes it was completely burned out. The squadron re-equipped with Hudsons & Dakotas and had a forward flight throughout the North African campaign up to the German surrender at Tunis. In late 1943 it returned to Cairo West. In January 1944 Penfold was posted to Algiers and appointed ADC and personal pilot to Field Marshal Sir Henry Maitland Wilson KCB, the Supreme Commander of Mediterranean Forces. Penfold returned to the UK in April to collect a Dakota, especially fitted out for the Field Marshal's use. He flew it back to Algiers in May and a week later took it across to a landing strip at Caserta, north of Naples. From here Penfold made trips to various HQ's in Italy, Greece, Corsica, Sardinia and flew back frequently to North Africa. In July 1944 the King arrived on a visit to the land and air forces in Italy. Penfold was given the job of looking after him and flying him from the base at Orvieto to front line fighter strips, where he personally decorated many Army and RAF officers and men. For his services to the King, Penfold was made a Member of the Royal Victorian Order. Two weeks later Penfold performed the same services for Winston Churchill, flying him to the major battle fronts. During his time with Field Marshall Wilson, Penfold flew many VIPs and made many overnight flights to Britain. When the Field Marshal was posted to Washington, Penfold flew back with him to the UK. He then joined the Communications Squadron at Hendon and continued flying VIPs to Europe and within Germany. On one occasion Penfold flew Air Vice-Marshal Janousek back to Prague and flew down the main thoroughfare, escorted by Liberators and Spitfires of the Czech Airforce. Penfold's final trip was to take Air Chief Marshal Sir Christopher Courtney to Burma, to plan the route for the bomber force, which would fly out via staging posts, each aircraft carrying 100 soldiers to finish the campaign against the Japanese if the atomic bomb proved ineffective. From January 1944 until September 1945 Penfold had the same crew that he took from 216 Squadron. They had flown 1750 hours together in the same Dakota A3c, FZ 631, which still had the same engines as it had when he picked the aircraft up at Prestwick. Penfold was released from the RAF in October 1945, as a Squadron Leader. His MVO was upgraded to LVO by Royal Decree in the eighties.

422 Distinguished Service Medal GV, 1915 Star Trio (mounted as worn). Star named K.12223 H Brassington D.S.M. STO.1.RN. Pair named K.12223 H Brassington L.STO RN. and DSM named K.12223 H Brassington STO ICL HM Submarine E11. DSM L/G 13th Sept 1915 for service in Submarines in the Sea of Marmora. Born Kentish Town, London. His copied service papers show that he was 'Slightly Wounded HMS Foyle sunk after hitting a mine 15th March 1917', later spending 7 days in the cells for being absent. Short History: The E11 passed through the Dardanelles on the night of 18 May. Surfacing off the town of Gallipoli, Lieut-Comdr Martin Nasmith captured a Turkish sailing vessel and lashed it to the conning tower to act as a disguise. However, this ruse failed to attract any targets, so after several days he abandoned it. Travelling up the Sea of Marmara, he sank a gunboat and several other small craft on 23 May. The following day, near the port of Rodosto, E11 encountered the Turkish transport Nagara, laden with ammunition. Aboard the transport was an American journalist Raymond Swing, from the Chicago Daily News. Nasmith sank the ship after it was abandoned by the crew and passengers. Nasmith sank another transport and forced one aground before being driven away from the shore by some Turkish cavalry. On 25 May 1915 E11 reached Constantinople /Istanbul. Nasmith was searching for the German warships SMS Goeben and SMS Breslau, when he surfaced at 12:40, he sighted the elderly transport Stamboul lying alongside the Tophane Arsenal. Nasmith's first torpedo ran in a circle and nearly struck the E11, however the second torpedo hit Stamboul. Under fire from shore-based artillery, E11 dived to make her escape. Caught in the strong Bosphorus current, E11 was out of control for 20 minutes until she settled on the bottom near the Maiden's Tower. Stamboul failed to sink, but was beached at Harem. E11's attack on Constantinople, the first by an enemy vessel in 100 years, had an enormous impact on Turkish morale, causing a panic in the city and compelling Goeben to shift to a safer mooring. E11 returned to the Bosphorus approaches on 27 May and sank more ships, but running short of torpedoes and with mounting mechanical problems, Nasmith headed home on 5 June. On his return passage through the Dardanelles he encountered another transport which, despite his vulnerable position and the poor state of the submarine, he attacked and sank with his final two torpedoes. Passing through the Narrows near Çanakkale, E11 snagged a moored mine. Nasmith had to tow the mine out of the straits before he was able to disentangle the submarine. On E11's first tour, eleven ships were sunk or disabled. For this successful tour Nasmith was awarded the Victoria Cross, the third submarine commander to receive the award during the Dardanelles Campaign. E11 was on her second tour when, on 6 August it successfully torpedoed the Turkish torpedo cruiser Peyk-i Sevket. Two days later 8th August 1915 as a new British landing was underway at Suvla, E11 torpedoed the antiquated Turkish pre-dreadnought battleship Barbaros Hayreddin off Bulair at the northern entrance to the Dardanelles. The ship sank with the loss of 21 officers and 237 men. Barbaros Hayreddin was one of two Ottoman battleships sunk during the campaign. Visiting Constantinople again, E11 sank a Black Sea collier as it was preparing to unload — a significant blow as coal was the main fuel source and supplies were scarce. Moving into the Gulf of Izmir, on the night of 20th August, E11's first officer, Lieutenant Guy D'Oyly-Hughes, swam ashore and blew up a section of the Constantinople-Baghdad railway line, a feat for which he was awarded the Distinguished Service Order. Navigating Officer Lieutenant Robert Brown was also awarded the Distinguished Service Order. A reservist from the Merchant Navy, Brown had famously been born rounding the Cape Horn on the SS John Gambles, the sister ship to the more famous Cutty Sark. E11 made three tours of the Sea of Marmara and sank in total 27 steamers and 58 smaller vessels. With small photo (4) VF

1021	British Academic Medal, gold d.46mm: Robert William Dale Memorial Medal issued by King Edward VI School, Birmingham in 1899. This heavy piece weighs 61.4g and is struck in 18ct gold. Robert William Dale was a Congregationalist minister, who died in 1895. This medal indicates that he was 'Baillif' of King Edward School, which possibly means that he was bailliff of the King Edward's School Birmingham Trust, a charitable organisation set up to provide scholarships for less privileged children. Perhaps this medal marks an anniversary of the foundation of the Trust, or perhaps was presented to a generous donor. Otherwise this may have been a school 'reward to simple piety' as described in the Latin legend, a tremendously expensive prize if indeed so. EF	£1000 - £1200

Bidders Terms

ESTIMATED VALUES: The estimated values shown after each lot are the auctioneer's opinion of what each lot may realise. The price realised may be in excess of this figure, it may also be less than.

POSTAL BIDDING: You may bid by mail before the sale. Please use the form provided. Enter the maximum you are prepared to offer for each lot and the auctioneer will represent you. Lots are knocked down at one step above the next highest bid, and not necessarily your highest bid. For example: Your highest bid is £110 and the next highest bid is £80: the hammer price is £85. It is the responsibility of the bidder to check details of bids placed. All bids will be held valid even if placed in error. The auctioneer will not be responsible for mistakes by the purchaser.

Lots purchased on behalf of postal bidders will be forwarded by the most practical method at the risk of the purchaser. Postage, packing, freight and insurance costs or part thereof shall be borne by the purchaser.

Each lot is sold as genuine unless otherwise described in the sale catalogue.

Any lot listed under collections and various or stated to comprise or contain a collection that is under-described shall be put up for sale not subject to rejection and shall be taken by the purchaser with all (if any) faults. Lots offered "as is" or "offered on their merits" may contain items that are not genuine and therefore may not be returned for any reason.

E-MAIL & INTERNET BIDS: Bids by E-mail, or via our internet bidding form at www.lockdales.com will be accepted up to 2.30pm prior to the date of sale. Any bids received after that time will not be valid unless Lockdales have specifically acknowledged the bids by returning confirmation prior to the commencement of the sale. Any bid made by electronic means should be acknowledged by 3.00pm on the day prior to the sale – if confirmation has not been received please telephone to confirm bids, between 3.00pm and 4.30pm. In all other respects the receipt of electronic bids will be dealt with in the same manner as postal bids, as detailed in the section dealing with postal bidding above.

TELEPHONE BIDS: Telephone bids may be made. We do not accept any responsibility for errors made in taking bids, especially by telephone, though every effort is made to ensure accuracy.

INVOICE & PAYMENT: Successful postal bidders will be sent a Pro Forma invoice immediately after the sale with details of payment methods. All invoices must be paid within seven days of the sale or the lot(s) may be deemed in default and any subsequent loss incurred on resale becomes the responsibility of the bidder.

ROOM BIDDERS: Room bidders must register and obtain a bidding number on arrival. If successful in obtaining a lot, please ensure that you display your bidding number clearly to the auctioneer and that it is your number that is called out. If you have any doubt about the price or buyer: please draw this to the auctioneer's attention immediately. Room bidders may settle their invoices on the day of sale, or within seven days at our offices. You may pay for and collect your purchases at any time during the sale.

A Buyers Premium of 17.25% will apply to all lots.

AUCTIONEER: The bidding advances shall be regulated by the auctioneer and shall be at his discretion. He has the right to refuse any bids. The auctioneer reserves the right to bid on behalf of clients and vendors, but shall not be liable for errors or omissions in executing instructions to bid. The auctioneer acts as agent only, and shall not be liable for any default of the purchaser or vendor.
