We conduct special valuation days at venues all around the UK. No appointment is necessary at such events, and valuations are provided free of charge. We look forward to meeting all our customers in person, and hope to see you soon. We are always keen to consign goods to auction, or to make cash purchases.

Many events will be scheduled throughout the year. Up-to-date details of events are on our website www.lockdales.com

Valuations are available at our Martlesham premises, please call first to make an appointment. In the case of high value collections we are happy to send one of our representatives to visit you. We will travel overseas to collect your goods if you have guaranteed that you will consign to our auction, or will accept a purchase offer agreed prior to travel.

Bidders Terms : Returns Policy

Please inspect thoroughly all lots purchased upon collection or postal receipt. Returns can only be made within 7 days of receipt, with written explanation of the reasons why. Items can only be returned if significantly mis-described, or if proven to be inauthentic when sold as genuine. Bulk lots cannot be returned and thus we strongly advise viewing such lots in person. The nature of what constitutes a bulk lot is determined at Lockdales' discretion. Returned lots will only be accepted if returned in the same condition they were received in. We seek to stress by these terms: that the practices and etiquette of sale by auction are different from those relevant to sale by private treaty. Items in our auction are not sold "on approval". Bidders should be certain of the nature of each lot before bidding. We do not refund postal charges.

*We do not accept any returns on specifically German medals & militaria. These items are considered 'sold as seen' and should only be bought in full knowledge and acceptance of these terms. Neither do we accept returns of bulk lots. Please ensure you have viewed items thoroughly.

For the rest of our Bidders Terms see end of catalogue.

653 : Group to William Melville, Superintendent C.O. C.I.D. Special Irish Branch, Special Branch and Spymaster MI5, the original "M" :- M.V.O. reverse no. 41, Royal Victorian Medal (QV, Silver), M.B.E. (1st type, civil), Coronation Police medal 1902 in Silver, Metropolitan Police reverse named William Melville, Supt. C.O. (C.I.D.), Neck Badge of the Commander of the Order of Isabel la Catolica (Spain), Officer de la Legion d'Honneur (France), Order of St. Sava reverse dated 1883 (Serbia), Order of Saint Sylvester 1905 (Vatican). His police whistle, four original testimonials issued by the Mayor of the City of Westminster. Also a Branch Memoranda type written by him giving a full account of his career in M.I.5 from 1903 to 1917. Group also contains 1887 Police Jubilee Medal Met Police to P.C. W. Foy G.Div. the original husband of his second wife.

William Melville was born on 25th April 1850 in Sneem, County Kerry, Ireland. He was the eldest son of James and Catherine (nee Connor) and had two brothers; Richard born 1859 and George born in 1868. The Melville family who owned a pub and a bakery were well known in the community. William was baptised in the local Catholic Church, attended school and in his teens was considered one of the best hurlers in the area. Young William helped his family business and every week travelled by pony and cart to Killarney. The story goes that one week the pony and trap were found outside the station but no William was to be found. This young man had like many young men of the time left Ireland to seek fame, fortune and adventure in London. Melville joined the Metropolitan Police in September 1872 and spent the first 6 months stationed at Bow Street and patrolled Covent Garden to Holborn and the area known as Little Dublin with his truncheon and whistle.

In 1879 Melville had been promoted from Constable to Detective Sergeant in the Criminal Investigation Department (CID) stationed in south London. This was a busy time for Melville as in February he married Kate Reilly from County Mayo in St George's Church, Southwark. For the next 4 years Melville was a D.S. in the South London C.I.D. In March 1883 he was recruited into a small special branch known as the Special Irish Branch. The Special Irish Branch was set up to combat the Fenian dynamite campaign of the 1880s. There were over 19 bombing attacks; they struck against major London landmarks such as the Palace of Westminster, Whitehall, the Tower of London. The Special Irish Branch were charged with foiling the bombers. The Dynamite War subsided from 1886 but another Fenian plot emerged in 1887. An American based Fenian F.F. Millen plotted to bomb Queen Victoria's golden jubilee celebrations. The 'Jubilee Plot' was foiled as Melville and the Special Irish Branch watched Millen and his co-conspirators around the clock forcing them to abandon their plot. This whole episode is cloaked in secret plans and counter plots, and it transpires that Millen was in fact a British agent the real target being to tarnish the reputation of the leader of the Irish Parliamentary Party Charles Stewart Parnell.

Melville was involved in one of the most baffling cases of the Metropolitan Police; the Jack the Ripper killings. Jack the Ripper is the name given to a vicious murderer who killed and mutilated five women in 1888. One of the suspects was an American man named Francis Tumbelty a quack doctor with a known hatred for women. In November 1888 he fled London, travelling to America via France. Melville was stationed in France at the time and attempted to catch and arrest Tumbelty but the suspect managed to escape. The Special Irish Branch was reorganised and Melville moved to a new and very small secret section called simply the Special Branch and was promoted to Inspector. Melville uncovered anarchist bomb plots and his reputation was enhanced when he was responsible for foiling plots to manufacture bombs to use against the Russian regime. Melville's arrest of the anarchist Meunier a Café Very bomber at Victoria Station in April 1894 was widely reported as whilst resisting arrest Meunier tried to drag Melville under the wheels of a train reportedly shouting "To fall into your hands, Melville! You the only man I feared and whose description was engraved on my mind".

Melville was married to Kate and had four children; sadly Kate died of pneumonia in March 1889. Melville engaged the services of Mrs Amelia Foy the widow of a colleague in SIB (W. Foy) eventually Melville married Mrs Foy.

In 1900 at the peak of his career he was promoted to Superintendent. He suddenly retired three years later and such was the interest in his antics that in 1906 the Daily Express reported that he had gone to work for the Russians. Melville denied this vigorously reporting he had quietly retired but nothing was further from the truth.

In 1903 the War Office set up a Directorate of Military Operations, MO2 and MO3, both dealing with intelligence gathering. Melville was the man for the job and his role was to act as general controller for the War Office. Melville drew upon his vast knowledge and experience of working with other national secret services and cultivating characters that would become espionage agents. He also undertook a number of secret missions of his own at home and abroad. His office was in Victoria Street, adjacent to Scotland Yard and he began a career as an espionage agent under the name William Morgan. Melville would report to Captain Francis Davies under alias of 'M'. Melville undertook many missions including British access to Persian oil reserves.

In 1909 the Secret Service Bureau was sent up to co-ordinate intelligence work under two sections; 'home section' later known as MI5 and 'foreign section' known as MI6. As chief detective for SSB Melville investigated suspicious foreigners and set up a register of aliens. In 1912 Melville discovered a network of German agents that were eventually rounded up.

The 27 page original dossier that comes with this group goes on to detail much of the work done by Melville including action against Boer terrorist suspects, German pre WW1 spies including a chat with the Kaiser at Windsor when they discussed the German agent Steinheuer.

He did much work with the Russian intelligence as there were many plotters in London threatening the overthrow of the Czar.

Melville dealt also with the Gun runners to Persia and Abyssinia; Agricultural German farmer students working on an Ipswich farm and mapping the area.

Melville worked tirelessly investigating the many reports of German spies and this work took its toll when he retired at the end of 1917 and died of Kidney failure in 1918. A superb group to a famous and interesting man. (9)

Bidders Terms Continued:

ESTIMATED VALUES: The estimated values shown after each lot are the auctioneer's opinion of what each lot may realise. The price realised may be in excess of this figure, it may also be less than.

PRE-SALE AND DESCRIPTIONS: Statements made by us in auction lot descriptions, and in reply to pre-sale enquiries, regarding authorship, origin, age, size, condition, genuineness, authenticity or value are intended as a guide only. These are statements of opinion and should not be relied on as statements of fact.

The absence of any description of a defect, damage, modification or restoration in any description or report does not imply that there are none. It is the responsibility of the bidder to assess the condition of auction lots prior to bidding.

We reserve the right to alter published descriptions of auction lots prior to sale. Such changes may be published on our website, displayed at the auction, announced by the auctioneer prior to the sale and/or communicated in any other manner.

POSTAL BIDDING: You may bid by mail before the sale. Please use the form provided. Enter the maximum you are prepared to offer for each lot and the auctioneer will represent you. Lots are knocked down at one step above the next highest bid, and not necessarily your highest bid. For example: Your highest bid is £110 and the next highest bid is £80: the hammer price is £85. It is the responsibility of the bidder to check details of bids placed. All bids will be held valid even if placed in error. The auctioneer will not be responsible for mistakes by the purchaser.

Lots purchased on behalf of postal bidders will be forwarded by the most practical method at the risk of the purchaser. Postage, packing, freight and insurance costs or part thereof shall be borne by the purchaser.

Each lot is sold as genuine unless otherwise described in the sale catalogue.

Any lot listed under collections and various or stated to comprise or contain a collection that is under-described shall be put up for sale not subject to rejection and shall be taken by the purchaser with all (if any) faults. Lots offered "as is" or "offered on their merits" may contain items that are not genuine and therefore may not be returned for any reason.

E-MAIL & INTERNET BIDS: Bids by E-mail, or via our internet bidding form at www.lockdales.com will be accepted up to 2.30pm prior to the date of sale. Any bids received after that time will not be valid unless Lockdales have specifically acknowledged the bids by returning confirmation prior to the commencement of the sale. Any bid made by electronic means should be acknowledged by 3.00pm on the day prior to the sale – if confirmation has not been received please telephone to confirm bids, between 3.00pm and 4.30pm. In all other respects the receipt of electronic bids will be dealt with in the same manner as postal bids, as detailed in the section dealing with postal bidding above.

TELEPHONE BIDS: Telephone bids may be made. We do not accept any responsibility for errors made in taking bids, especially by telephone, though every effort is made to ensure accuracy.

INVOICE & PAYMENT: Successful postal bidders will be sent a Pro Forma invoice immediately after the sale with details of payment methods. All invoices must be paid within seven days of the sale or the lot(s) may be deemed in default and any subsequent loss incurred on resale becomes the responsibility of the bidder.

ROOM BIDDERS: Room bidders must register and obtain a bidding number on arrival. If successful in obtaining a lot, please ensure that you display your bidding number clearly to the auctioneer and that it is your number that is called out. If you have any doubt about the price or buyer: please draw this to the auctioneer's attention immediately. Room bidders may settle their invoices on the day of sale, or within seven days at our offices. You may pay for and collect your purchases at any time during the sale.

A Buyers Premium of 17.25% will apply to all lots.

AUCTIONEER: The bidding advances shall be regulated by the auctioneer and shall be at his discretion. He has the right to refuse any bids. The auctioneer reserves the right to bid on behalf of clients and vendors, but shall not be liable for errors or omissions in executing instructions to bid. The auctioneer acts as agent only, and shall not be liable for any default of the purchaser or vendor.
